

Henriette Hallberg Thygesen CEO & President

Terma is a global supplier of mission-critical solutions for the Defense, Aerospace, and Security markets.

The company is headquartered in Denmark with subsidiaries and operations in the Netherlands, Germany, Austria, Romania, Czech Republic, Belgium, France, UK, India, Singapore, Indonesia, and UAE.

The U.S.-based subsidiary Terma Inc. holds a U.S. security clearance (Secret) and has offices in Crystal City, Virginia; Warner Robins and Atlanta, Georgia; Fort Worth, Texas.

About Henriette Hallberg Thygesen

Prior to joining Terma, Henriette held a number of executive positions within A.P. Moeller Maersk, most recently as COO. Earlier roles included CEO Fleet & Strategic Brands ((2000-2023) responsible for all non-integrated business, strategic priorities such as Decarbonisation as well as a number of enabling functions), CEO of Svitzer (2016-2021), Regional CEO Americas (2014-2016), and Regional CEO Asia (2011-2014).

Henriette holds a PhD in Applied Mathematics, an Executive MBA from London Business school and Columbia University, as well as a Master of Science degree in Applied Mathematics.

In addition, to the Terma CEO role, Henriette is a member of the Board of Vestas A/S (windmill manufacturer) and ISS A/S (facility management). She has prior board experience from SAS (airline) and Cowi (engineering consulting).

Henriette is married to Jacob with one son (Jens) and lives in central Copenhagen.

(September 2024)

